Preparation method poutine

Ready for a culinary trip to Canada with our poutine recipe? This classic, known for its delicious combination of crispy fries, creamy cheese and rich gravy, is a true delight. Our recipe takes poutine to the next level with the addition of Henri Willig's Organic Jersey cheese. Whether you choose the traditional method of frying or bake the fries in the oven, this dish is sure to impress. Be surprised by the authentic flavours of this Canadian comfort food!

Preparation

- 1: Cut the potatoes into (french fries).
- 2: Either deep-fry your potatoes or use an oven. Deep-frying: heat the pan to 185°C and fry the chips in portions for 5 minutes until golden, sprinkle with salt and pepper. If using an oven: preheat the oven to 230°C/450°F. Line 2 baking sheets with parchment paper. Drizzle the chips with olive oil and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Mix all the chips together. Arrange them evenly on each baking sheet so they don't touch. Bake for 25 minutes, flipping halfway through, until golden brown.
- 3: For the gravy, add the butter and flour to a medium saucepan over medium heat. Whisk until the mixture is golden brown.
- 4: Add the beef stock, Worcestershire sauce and remaining salt and pepper. Bring to the boil and whisk continuously.
- 5: Make a cornstarch mixture in a small bowl by mixing the water with the cornstarch. Add that to the gravy and stir until it thickens. Remove from the heat and cover to keep the gravy warm.
- 6: Transfer the fried chips to a large bowl or serving dish, add the small cubes of Organic Jersey cheese and pour the hot gravy over the top.
- 7: Toss to coat, serve immediately.
